
PAST EVENTS

It is very important for us to share the Conect4Children project with the professional public in the Czech Republic. That's why the Czech team leaders of the project regularly visit congresses and conferences around the Czech Republic to present the vision and the short-term and long-term goals of the project. You can read something about each event that we participated in.