LXIX. Pharmacological days 2019 Praha

On the 11th – 13th of September 2019, the LXIX. Pharmacological days were held at the Institute of Pharmacology of the 3rd Medical Faculty of Charles University in Prague organized by AMCA, spol. s.r.o. During these days, 200 Czech and Slovak pharmacologists met to discuss the issues of cellular and molecular pharmacology, clinical pharmacology, toxicology and experimental pharmacology. The c4c project was presented through a presentation, which you can download and read here.
